

SPLYT FACE UNITS

The Splyt Face Masonry Unit has an eight-fluted exposed aggregate face with $\frac{1}{4}$ deep grooves. This versatile surface is ideal for interior or exterior usage.

The texture and feeling of the Splyt Face Unit adds a special accent and marked contrast to horizontal concrete expanses, whether used for interior or exterior applications.

This textured masonry unit is available in a variety of integral colors and includes additive for efflorescence control.